Terms and conditions

All stalls are accepted on the discretion of the festival administration, and will be notified by the 7th September, with payment info to come thru.

All stall holders agree by booking a stall to adhere to all market regulations including those in the bump in and bump out emails.

Sites are only booked once payment is made, upon receiving invoice. On booking a site stall holders acknowledge their own public liability insurance and appropriate council licensing are their responsibilities, copies to be provided to administration.

All food stalls must provide public liability certificates and food licenses unless except in which case proof of exemption is required.
